MEMO ENDORSED

Re: Symphony Investment Partners, Inc. v. Keeco, LLC and Richard Platt, 20-cv-09892 (GBD)

Dear Magistrate Judge Parker:

We represent Plaintiff Symphony Investment Partners, Inc. ("Plaintiff") in the above-referenced action. We write jointly with counsel for defendants Keeco, LLC ("Keeco") and Richard Platt ("Platt") to address a scheduling issue.

In an order that your Honor recently entered in this matter, the parties were given until January 13, 2023 to complete expert discovery, and a settlement conference was scheduled for January 23, 2023. We just learned that one of the defendant's attorney is going to trial on a matter next week, making it necessary to move the deposition of plaintiff's expert one week, until January 20, 2023. (All parties agree to go forward with the expert deposition on that date.) However, this will also make it necessary to briefly push back the January 23 conference.

In light of the foregoing, and in view of a number of February scheduling conflicts that each of the parties and their respective clients are attempting to negotiate around, the parties collectively and respectfully request that the settlement conference with your Honor be rescheduled to February 13 or 14, 2023. The parties understand that they will be obligated to submit their pre-conference letter to the Court one week before the date selected.

Thank you in advance for your attention to these matters.

Hon. Katharine H. Parker
